AFRICA DEVELOPMENT AFRIQUE & DEVELOPPEMENT

A Quarterly Journal of the Council for the Development of Social Science Research in Africa

Revue trimestrielle du Conseil pour le développement de la recherche en sciences sociales en Afrique

Guest Editors/Rédacteurs en Chef invités
Ibrahim Abdullah and Yusuf Bangura

Vol. XXII, Nos. 3/4, 1997

Africa Development is the quarterly bilingual journal of CODESRIA. It is a social science journal whose major focus is on issues which are central to the development of society. Its principal objective is to provide a forum for the exchange of ideas among African scholars from a variety of intellectual persuasions and various disciplines. The journal also encourages other contributors working on Africa or those undertaking comparative analysis of Third World issues.

Africa Development welcomes contributions which cut across disciplinary boundaries. Articles with a narrow focus and incomprehensible to people outside their discipline are unlikely to be accepted.

The journal is abstracted in the following indexes: International African Bibliography; Documentatieblad; Abstracts on Rural Development in the Tropics; Documentationseliest Africa; A Current Bibliography on African Affairs

Afrique et Développement est un périodique trimestriel bilingue du CODESRIA. C'est une revue de sciences sociales consacrée pour l'essentiel aux problèmes de développement et de société. Son objectif fondamental est de créer un forum pour des échanges d'idées entre intellectuels africains de convictions et de disciplines diverses. Il est également ouvert aux autres chercheurs travaillant sur l'Afrique et à ceux se consacrant à des études comparatives sur le tiers monde.

Afrique et Développement souhaite recevoir des articles mobilisant les acquis de différentes disciplines. Des articles trop spécialisés ou incompréhensibles aux personnes qui sont en dehors de la discipline ne seront probablement pas acceptés.

Les articles publiés dans le périodique sont indexés dans les journaux spécialisés suivants: International African Bibliography; Documentatieblad; Abstracts on Rural Development in the Tropics; Documentationseliest Africa; A Current Bibliography on African Affairs.

NEW RELEASE CODESRIA BOOK SERIES

Although all authoritarian regimes in Africa are not military in character, the question of the military has been central to the current issue of democratisation on the continent. The contributions in this volume deal neither with the definitive erosion of the military and civil authoritarianism, nor with the inexorable march toward democracy but with what appears in retrospect to be a less clear-cut and more open-ended state of transition, located ambiguously between the crisis of authoritarianism and the prospect for democracy on the continent.

The contributors emphasize the uneven patterns and forms of militarisation in Africa but within and between regimes.

EXPANDING DEMOCRATIC SPACE IN NIGERIA

EDITED BY
JIBRIN ISRAHIM

Establishing, broadening and maintaining democracy in Africa is an issue with world-wide implications. On the continent itself, democracy is a vital issue, precisely because the majority of Africans have been reduced to virtual outlaws, with little or no rights in their own countries. This process has been driven by their own governments.

Atrocities, suppression, and violence have occurred all over the continent in the suppression of democratic freedom. What is astounding is that after such suffering, the threshold of tolerance breaks and citizens seek ways to exercise some freedom from daily oppression. Nigeria, particularly in its current state, is no exception. Written by African social scientists, Expanding Democratic Space in Nigeria makes an essential contribution to the ongoing debate and analysis of the potential for barriers to democratic space. Chapters highlight the role of different interest groups, the implications of the country's colonial past and the legacy of the military, the role of the mass media and women's participation in the political arena. Intellectuals, trade unions, human rights organisations and young people are all featured, as they take place in what the authors see as an inevitable move towards a freer state.

NEW RELEASE CODESRIA BOOK SERIES

This book, is an interrogation of African studies, its formulations and fetishes, theories and trends, possibilities and pitfalls. As a discursive formation, African studies is, of course, immersed in the contexts and configurations of the Western epistemological order.

'This book is a 'docu-drama' in book form. It uses both fact and fiction, and mobilizes both the computer and the Muse. Paul Tiyambe Zeleza reinterprets the African condition and examines those who study it. Especially fascinating is his scrutiny of Africa's most dangerous marabouts of the twentieth century — academic Africanists from Western and neo-Western universities. Postmodernism and postcoloniality may still be in vogue, but this book inaugurates the new era of post-pessimism'.

THIRD WORLD QUARTERLY

Journal of Emerging Areas

EDITOR

Shahid Qadir,
Royal Holloway,
University of London,
UK

Supported by an International Editorial Board

Third World Quarterly is the leading journal of scholarship and policy in the field of international studies. For almost two decades, it has set the agenda on Third World affairs. As the most influential academic journal covering the emerging world, Third World Quarterly is at the forefront of analysis and commentary on fundamental issues of global concern.

Third World Quarterly provides expert and interdisciplinary insight into crucial issues before they impinge upon media attention, as well as coverage of the latest publications in its comprehensive book review section.

Third World Quarterly's original articles provide diverse perspectives on the developmental process and a candid discussion of democratic transitions as well as identifying significant political, economic and social issues. Readable, free from esoteric jargon, informed without being abstruse, always authoritative and often provocative, Third World Quarterly covers the key North-South developments in the post-Wall world.

SPECIAL ISSUES

Third World Quarterly annually commissions special issues on key concepts and processes. The 1997 Special Issue will be entitled Tempering Collaboration: UN task-sharing with regional arrangements and non-governmental organizations for security and services.
