Vol. XVI, No. 2 , 1991

Africa Development is the quarterly bi-lingual journal of CODESRIA. It is a social science journal whose major focus is on issues which are central to the development of society. Its principal objective is to provide a forum for the exchange of ideas among African scholars from a variety of intellectual persuasions and various disciplines. The journal also encourages other contributors working on Africa or those undertaking comparative analysis of Third World issues.

Africa Development welcomes contributions which cut across disciplinary boundaries. Articles with a narrow focus and uncomprehensible to people outside that discipline are unlikely to be accepted.

The journal is abstracted in the following indexes: International African Bibliography; Documentatieblad; Abstracts on Rural Development in the Tropics; Documentationsdienst Africa; A Current Bibliography on African Affairs.

Afrique et Développement est un périodique trimestriel bilingue du CODESRIA. C'est une revue de sciences sociales consacrée pour l'essentiel aux problèmes de développement et de société. Son objectif fondamental est de créer un forum pour des échanges d'idées entre intellectuels africains de convictions et de disciplines diverses. Il est également ouvert aux autres chercheurs travaillant sur l'Afrique et à ceux se consacrant à des études comparatives sur le Tiers-monde.

Afrique et Développement souhaite recevoir des articles mobilisant les acquis de différentes disciplines. Des articles 'trop spécialisés ou incompréhensibles aux personnes qui sont en dehors de la discipline ne seront probablement pas acceptés.

Les articles publiés dans le périodique sont indexés dans les journaux spécialisés suivants: International African Bibliography; Documentatieblad; Abstracts on Rural Development in the Tropics; Documentationsdienst Africa; A Current Bibliography on African Affairs

NEWLY RELEASED CODESRIA BOOK SERIES

The 1960s and most of the 1970s in Algeria were characterized by a mood of success and optimism as stated in "The Algerian Charter". However, this over-all mood altered in the 1980s when the economic crisis triggered a far-reaching social and political change as can be testified by the outstanding October 1988 uprise and the subsequent modifications in the political structure. This book which is written by a multi-disciplinary team of Algerian social scientists brilliantly analyzes the post-independence social transformations in Algeria.

The authors investigate the new development orientations, state disengagement, the changeover from industrialization as "prime mover" of development to deindustrialization, a new agricultural reform, a fundamental restructuring of civil society and its relations with the state - thus marking the end of populism -, so as to portray the deep ongoing changes in Algeria.

Ali El-Kenz, coordinator of the group, is presently Professor of Sociology at the Université d'Alger as well as Director of Research at CREAD. As a specialist of industrial and labour sociology, his many publications include: L'Economie de l'Algérie (T. Benhouria), Paris - Maspéro, 1980. Les Maîtres-penseurs - Alger, ENAL - 1984. Une expérience industrielle en Algérie, Paris - CNRS, 1987.

NEW RELEASE CODESRIA BOOK SERIES

This brilliant contribution to African social science presents an original theory of social formations with a new methodological approach. Professor Mafeje critically reviews the works of orthodox anthropologists, questioning the impact on African Studies of both development theory and classical ethnography. Within a context of redefining forms of political organizations, he uses research on the East African Lacustrine Kingdoms to analyze the articulation of the relationship between political and economic power. Arguing that pastoralism and agriculture need not represent different modes of production, but rather socially controlled options within the same mode, he rejects articulation theory and the concept of feudalism. Finally he evaluates the impact of colonial capitalism on different social formations. It is an outstanding theoretical contribution that raises new perspectives on the classic issues of exploitation, class and social change in African societies.
