The JOURNAL OF SOUTHERN AFRICAN AFFAIRS is an interdisciplinary quarterly of research and writing on economics, politics, international affairs, history, law, sociology, anthropology, geography, technology and the cultures of Southern Africa. The JOURNAL's objective is to present an African-centric approach to the study of Southern Africa. The geographic areas covered are: South Africa, Namibia, Swaziland, Lesotho, Botswana, Angola, Zambia, Zimbabwe, Malawi and Mozambique including the border states of Tanzania and Zaire. The JOURNAL OF SOUTHERN AFRICAN AFFAIRS encourages and supports research on inter-African affairs as well as the relationship of international systems to Southern Africa.

All manuscripts should be submitted in triplicate and may be in English or Portuguese. Manuscripts in Portuguese will be translated into English before publication. They should conform to the style of the University of Chicago Press, be typed double-spaced and may be mimeographed or hectographed. Footnotes should appear at the end of the manuscript. Manuscripts will be submitted without the name of the author to regional editorial boards. Please include a removable cover page giving title, authorship, affiliation and address. Manuscripts should be sent by first class mail to: Mariyawanda Nzumah, Editor, Journal of Southern African Affairs, 4133 Art/Sociology Building, University of Maryland, College Park, Maryland 20742 U.S.A.; (302) 454-5937/8.

Articles in the JOURNAL OF SOUTHERN AFRICAN AFFAIRS represent neither the views of the Journal's officers nor those of the Southern African Research Association nor those of the Afro-American Studies Program, University of Maryland, College Park. The Editor(s) is responsible for the final selection of the content of the JOURNAL OF SOUTHERN AFRICAN AFFAIRS and reserves the right to reject any material deemed inappropriate for publication. Responsibility for opinions expressed and for the accuracy of facts published in articles or book reviews rests solely with the individual authors or book reviewers.

Four issues are published each year in January, April, July and October and may be purchased at the rate of $4 per single issue or at the annual subscription rates of $12 for individuals and $16 for libraries/institutions.
