

african environment

environmental studies and regional planning bulletin

Published quarterly by the Environment Training Programme (P.O. Box 3370 - Dakar, Senegal) in collaboration with the International African Institute (London) and with the support of IDEP (Dakar), UNEP (Nairobi) and SIDA (Stockholm).

Contents of Vol. I, 1975 include

- n° 1 : Ecological conditions of social change in the central Highlands of Angola by J. Vieira da Silva and J. de Morais
- n° 2 : When history repeats itself : the famine of 1931 in Niger by A. Salifou
- n° 3 : The political economy of rural water supply by G. Tschannerl
- n° 4 : The traditional African pharmacopoeia by J. Kerharo

SUBSCRIPTION RATES

Africa & Third World countries

1,500 F CFA per year

Other countries

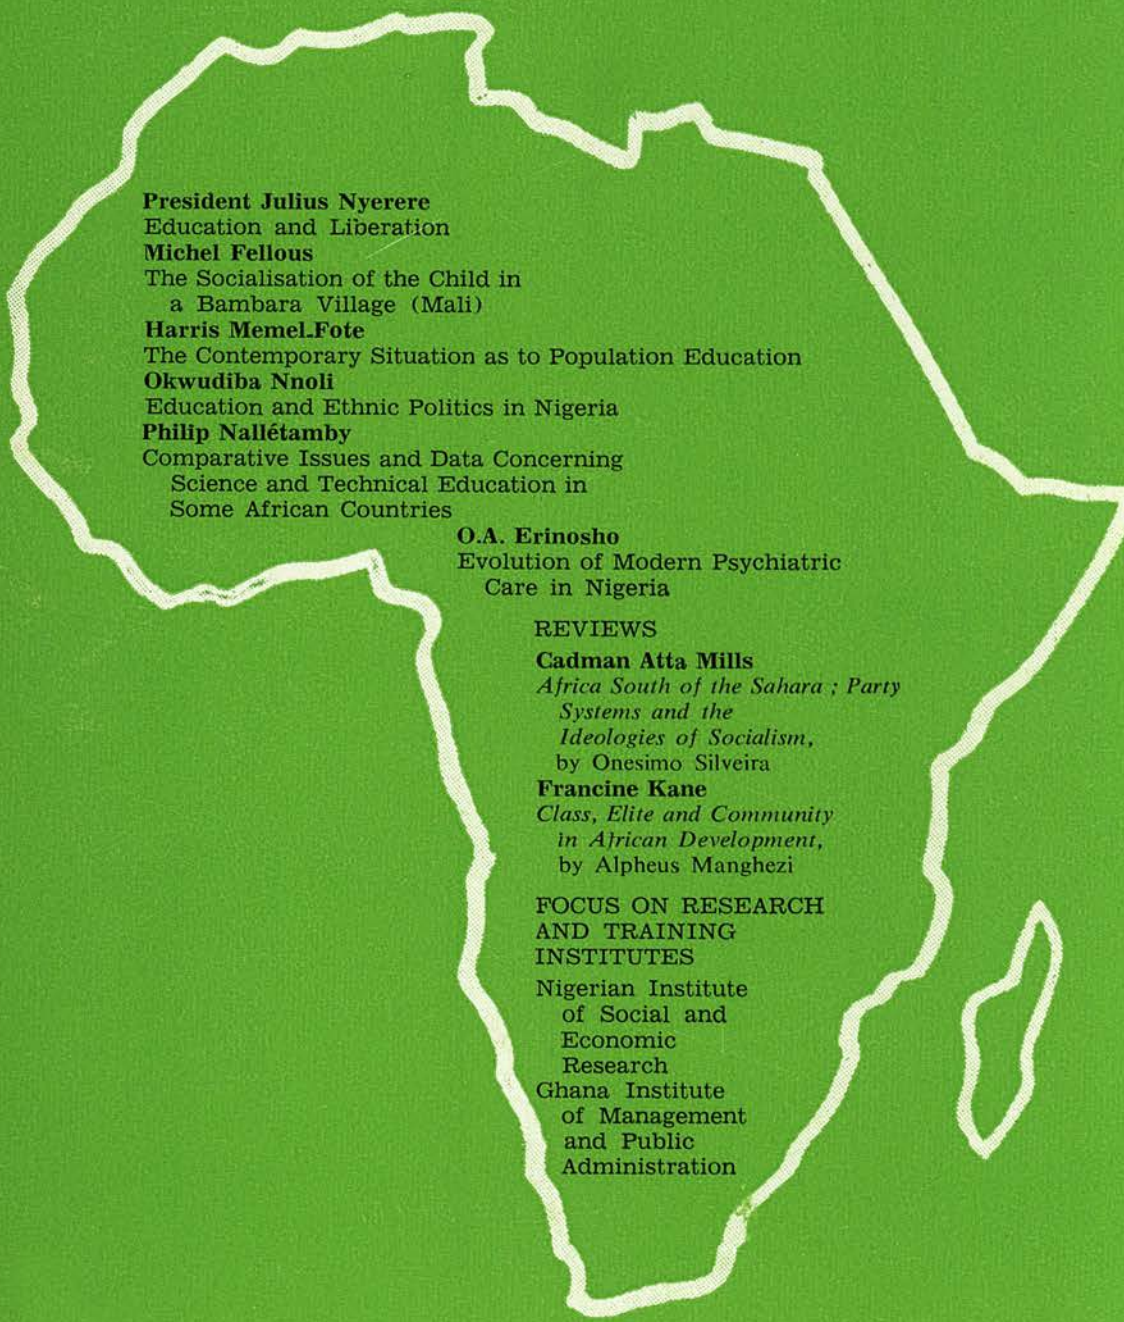

3,000 F CFA per year

Students

1,000 F CFA per year

Published by Codesria Dakar, and printed by G.I.A.

9, Rue Thiers, DAKAR — B.P. 51

President Julius Nyerere
Education and Liberation

Michel Fellous
The Socialisation of the Child in a Bambara Village (Mali)

Harris Memel Fote
The Contemporary Situation as to Population Education

Okwudiba Nnoli
Education and Ethnic Politics in Nigeria

Philip Nallétamby
Comparative Issues and Data Concerning Science and Technical Education in Some African Countries

O.A. Erinosh
Evolution of Modern Psychiatric Care in Nigeria

REVIEWS

Cadman Atta Mills
Africa South of the Sahara ; Party Systems and the Ideologies of Socialism,
by Onesimo Silveira

Francine Kane
Class, Elite and Community in African Development,
by Alpheus Manghezi

FOCUS ON RESEARCH AND TRAINING
INSTITUTES

Nigerian Institute of Social and Economic Research

Ghana Institute of Management and Public Administration